

The Code of the City of Jefferson outlines the following regulations for temporary signs, which includes political signs:

Section 3-6. Temporary Signs

C. Temporary political signs may be erected prior to the election to which they pertain but only after certification of the ballot and shall be removed within seven days after the election. The owner of the property on which political signs are located shall be responsible for removal of the signs. The maximum size of such signs shall be as follows:

1. In rural, residential and Planned Unit Development zoning districts such temporary political signs shall not exceed five square feet.
2. In commercial districts such temporary signs shall not exceed sixty-four square feet.
3. In manufacturing or industrial districts such signs shall not exceed one hundred twenty-eight square feet.

D. (8) “...Placement on other public right-of-way shall not be allowed.”
