DAVE STELLY HITTING CLINICS

Dave Stelly Hitting Clinics is again conducting a hitting clinic for boys 14 and under. Mr. Stelly's interesting and innovative techniques use a combination of skills as taught by famed Tulane University Baseball Coach Joe Brockoff and drills created by Dave to enhance muscle memory in the art of hitting a baseball. Joe Brockoff's resume includes over 600 wins at the Major College level and years of instructing young players. Dave Stelly takes Joe's knowledge and combines his own insightful talents. This clinic is a great learning environment for those boys who are looking to take their hitting skills to the next level. The clinic will take place in Washington Park on May 2-3 with group size limited to 15 boys per session for more individual instructions.
